Brian Nielsen, Becky Nielsen : Around Cooperstown (NY) (Postcard History) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Around Cooperstown (NY) (Postcard History):

A STEP BACK IN TIME!By A CustomerWhat a great book.Very informative, chock full of history of a very special town in upstate NY. Over 200 postcard views from 1900-1940s each with its own description, from its favorite son James Fenimore Cooper to the Baseball Hall of Fame. A must for the history buff or the baseball fan. ( there is one chapter on the hall) I had to get mine through...

Best known today as the Home of Baseball, Cooperstown and the Otsego Lake area are rich in history and, unlike many places, much of this heritage remains intact. Thus, the Cooperstown area is said to offer us “a step back in time.” You will not find any fast-food restaurants or chain stores here. A majority of the original buildings are still in use, serving as small shops, offices, banks, and other businesses. Each of the nearby villages—Cherry Valley, Springfield, Milford, Hartwick, and Index—has its own incredible architecture and its own story to tell. Otsego Lake is the famed Glimmerglass in the writings of Cooperstown’s favorite son, James Fenimore Cooper. The area also boasts the Glimmerglass Opera, the Leatherstocking Golf Course, and historical museums, including the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

About the AuthorAuthors Brian and Becky Nielsen are members of the New York State Historical Association and of the Cooperstown business community. They have assembled some stunning images and have woven them together with lively narrative to tell the story of their home.
