Explore the cult world of collectible vinyl toys with this magnificently illustrated introduction to some of the world's top designers. Over the last ten to fifteen years collecting vinyl toys has become one of the hottest urban trends. It all started in the late 1990s in Hong Kong when the artists Michael Lau and Eric So started using vinyl to create limited versions of collectible toys targeted to an adult audience. Now artist, illustrators, graffiti artists, and designers from all over the world are creating collectibles toys. This superbly illustrated volume brings together the work of some of the most respected and exciting designers in the collectible toy field.
