Tourbillon International, Caroline Childers : Jewelry International, Vol. IV before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Jewelry International, Vol. IV:

The books are nice, because they offer such a broad range of information on many different styles of jewelry, both historic and modern. Sure, a lot of space is taken up with ads for jewelry houses, but that's the point, right? Where else are you going to see so many diverse (and current) styles together? My one criticism is that the information is presented in a somewhat random matter, with chapters on historic jewels mixed in with modern pieces, which sometimes leaves you wondering which is which (although I understand it can be fun to see the juxtaposition between old and new). There really are some great examples of very important pieces; you get to see everything from the Duchess of Windsor's pearls to the latest haute joaillerie creations from the likes of Bulgari, Cartier, etc. 3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Great reference and excellent qualityBy R. RoqueI bought this book for one of my relatives involved with jewelry design, she loved it and she always go through the book without even blink. Good reference material, excellent quality. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful.

Five StarsBy Kasia WittieThanks

Jewelry International is the most up-to-date publication on what is happening in the world of jewelry. Gorgeous photographs of stunning haute jewelry pieces and in-depth text on the history of jewelry make this book a must-have for anyone in love with jewelry. The glamour and excitement of the world of haute jewelry is beautifully explored in the fourth edition of Jewelry International. The series brings together the world's most famous jewelers and presents their most luscious pieces for your delectation. Jewelry International, the only series of its kind, features the world's most exquisite jewels and the companies that craft them. The most fabulous names in the world of haute jewelry, such as Andreoli, Arunashi, Assael, Bayco, Bulgari, Cartier, Cora, Daniella Kronfle, David Webb, de Grisogono, Dior Joaillerie, Gumuchian, Jacob Co., Jewels Emporium, Ralph Lauren, and Zorab, all have their own chapters, focusing on the history and significant pieces of each house.
